

APRIL 2023 NEWSLETTER

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello my friends,

How are you all doing? I am swell. This season keeps me very busy. I have programs to do, taxes to mail and gardens to grow. It seems like I get busier and busier. It is so much fun.

The Liars Contest will be here before you know it. We have a few changes in the rules for this year. Members spoke to us about the rules, and we listened. The rules will be on the website, so take a look. The deadline is still June 1, 2023, for entries. Our event takes place on July 8, 2023, in Webster Groves, Missouri. We have scoped out a venue and found a great one. There will be a workshop again. This year we have engaged the wonderful workshop leader, Sherry Norfolk.

We will have lunch together and a story or two before the contest. Once again, there will be a silent auction and a book sale.

Come for the contest, the tales and to meet up with friends. It will be so good to see everyone face to face. Bring a story to tell at the swap.

Love to you all,

Joyce Slater

MO-TELL MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Glen "Papa" Wright

How did you get involved in storytelling?

There was a guy who lived down the street from me who was dressed up one day like Abraham Lincoln. I asked why he was dressed like that and he told me he was a storyteller. His name was Bert Minkin. I told him I was a percussionist and asked if he had ever thought about adding percussion to his stories and characters. Bert thought that was a good idea so we started working together. He and I were doing a performance at a community center and Gladys and Truman Coggsell were in the audience and saw our performance. During the performance, I interacted with the children and my instruments on my own. Gladys liked what she saw and introduced herself. As our friendship grew, she invited me to do a percussion workshop at her By Word-of-Mouth Storytelling Conference/Festival. That was around 1994.

Shortly after that, I began working with Gladys, Glynis Brooks, and January Kiefer. At that time, I played sitting down. I did not approach playing the instruments the way I do now. When my wife, Jackie, became a storyteller, I did not freelance anymore. She and I became Tales Told the "Wright" Way and we worked at developing our own style of storytelling. I add sound effects, color, and texture with a variety of percussion instruments as Jackie tells folktales and fables.

Why did you join MO-TELL? I joined MO-TELL to support storytelling in Missouri. I was on the board years ago as Vice President. I recently became a lifetime member.

What are some of the things you like to do? Besides dining out and traveling, which I have not done since March 2020, I enjoy playing creative improvised music. It gives me a chance to use my imagination, create my ideas, be spontaneous, and release a lot of energy all at the same time. My goal as a creative improvisational musician is to perform on a national level. In June of 2022, I joined Fred Tompkins, bass flute/C flute and Greg Mills, piano/melodica to create free improvisational music. I have already recorded with Greg on an avant-garde CD entitled "KUVUKA," featuring Greg on piano and me on drum set. The Tompkins, Mills, Wright Trio just recorded one CD and another is due to be released soon. I am also working on a CD with musician Tory Starbuck.

What do you want people to know about you? I am a professional percussionist and puppeteer. I taught percussion at the St. Louis Conservatory and Schools for the Arts for 23 years. I also taught St. Louis Community College's Applied Music students for 3 years. I have performed with St. Louis Symphony musicians on various projects. I have also worked with world class jazz musicians. I have been a teaching artist with "The Wright Rhythms for Small Hands" workshops and residencies over 30 years with Young Audiences of St. Louis that is now Springboard to Learning, a national organization that sends artists into the schools for enrichment programs. I also play solo vibes or marimba for private parties and art exhibits.

I am a member of Puppeteers of America and the Puppet Guild of Greater St. Louis. I was the President of the Puppet Guild from 2005-2015. Together with Jackie, we formed our business called The 'Wright' Entertainment for Children. We offer puppet shows and puppet workshops, children's percussion workshops, and storytelling. We published a children's story-coloring book based on one of our puppet shows.

Besides being an artist, I am a former marathon runner. I ran 100 miles a week to train for marathons. My best marathon time is 2 hours and 41 minutes for the 26.1 miles. When I was 30 years old, I ran the Alton, IL Ten Mile Run in 54 minutes flat. Now, I am too busy to run like that; so I only jog slowly for an hour every day; and I do not miss a day.

In 2018, I was featured in an article in St. Louis Magazine about my work as a performing artist. I was honored in 2012 by receiving the Luminary Award from Springboard to Learning for my percussion work with young children in St. Louis City and County Schools. Jackie and I were recipients of St. Louis Magazine's 2007 A-List Award for Best Story Time. In 2006 I received the Progressive Youth Connection's World of Children Award for my work with children through Young Audiences of St. Louis. I received the 2005 Pillar Award given by the Intercommunity Housing Association for dedication to serving the poor of St. Louis.

STORYTELLING SERENDIPITY CORNER

HERE'S TWO FROM PERRIN:

THIS WEEK WE HAD TERMINEX COME FOR OUR TERMITE PROTECTION. NO, WE DON'T HAVE TERMITES PROTECTING OUR HOME, WE ARE TRYING TO KEEP THEM AWAY... WELL, SEAN FROM HANNIBAL, MO COMES FOR THE INSTALLATION OF CYLINDERS AND HE SAYS THAT HE'S FROM HANNIBAL. I SAID THAT'S QUITE A DRIVE.

HE AGREES. I SAID, DO YOU KNOW GLADYS COGGSWELL? HE SAYS YES AND HE ALSO KNOWS ANGELA WILLIAMS. HE LOVES THEM BOTH. HE SAID HE'D MOVED THEM TO KANSAS CITY. (AND NOW THEY'RE BACK IN HANNIBAL). THEN HE TELLS ME THAT HE WAS A FOSTER CHILD IN ANGELA'S HOME GROWING UP. THEN HE SENT A VIDEO OF ME ON MY PORCH TO ANGELA. SHE SAYS, "SMALL WORLD." HE LOVES STORYTELLERS!

TODAY, SEVERAL DAYS LATER, WE CALLED UP SPECTRUM. WE WERE HAVING TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES (NOT UNUSUAL). SO, MIKE ARRIVES AT 8 TO SAVE THE DAY! HE ASKS WHAT I DO/DID IN MY WORK. AND OF COURSE I MENTIONED AMONG OTHER THINGS THAT I AM A STORYTELLER. HE SAYS, "MY MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHER WAS THE BEST TEACHER AND STORYTELLER EVER! HIS NAME IS KEN WOLFE. I LEARNED SO MUCH FROM HIM." THIS IS WHILE I'M WORKING ON MY COMPUTER GETTING READY FOR THE LIARS CONTEST. CAN YOU BELIEVE IT?

IT'S THE TRUTH. I, OF COURSE, DIVULGED TO HIM THAT KEN IS A GREAT LIAR.

*IT IS A SMALL WORLD AND WITH STORYTELLING A BIG INFLUENCE ON OUR LISTENERS!
DO YOU HAVE A STORYTELLING SERENDIPITOUS STORY FOR THE MO-TELL REGISTER?
MAKE IT SHORT AND SWEET AND SEND TO PERRIN STIFEL AT PSTIFELSTL@EARTHLINK.NET.*

THEN, SUDDENLY, CHARLOTTE REALIZED HER LIFE WAS EMPTY AND SHE DESPERATELY NEEDED A THICK BURGER AND A GUINNESS AT A ST. LOUIS IRISH PUB AND THEN TO GO UPSTAIRS TO THEIR EVENT VENUE AND HAVE HER HEART FILLED WITH AMATEUR STORYTELLING FROM AMBITIOUS YOUNG COLLEGE STUDENTS.

THIS DAY IN FILM HISTORY!

70 YEARS AGO, "ROMAN HOLIDAY," STARRING AUDREY HEPBURN AND GREGORY PECK, BROUGHT TO AMERICANS THE FANCIFUL ITALIAN LEGEND OF THE MOUTH OF TRUTH. POPULAR AND ANCIENT LEGEND HAS IT THAT LIARS IN ROME WHO PUT THEIR HAND THROUGH THE MOUTH WOULD RIGHTEOUSLY LOSE IT AS PENALTY FOR THEIR DECEIT. SINCE THIS FAMOUS SCENE CHARMED THE PANTS OFF MOVIEGOERS AND LIARS ALIKE, THE MOUTH OF TRUTH HAS BECOME A FAVORITE SITE VISIT FOR TRUTH-TELLERS TO BE VINDICATED. IT'S ALMOST AS POPULAR AS THE BLARNEY STONE OF IRELAND, BUT STRANGELY, THERE'S LITTLE TOURISM CROSSOVER.

Story of the Month

MORNING SUNRISE

A man in one of the villages had a very beautiful daughter. She was so lovely that people called her “Morning Sunrise.” Every young man who saw her wanted to marry her. Three, in particular, were very anxious to have her for their wife. Her father found it difficult to decide among them. He determined to find out by a trick which of the three was most worthy of her.

He bade her lie down on her bed as if she were dead. He then sent the report of her death to each of the three lovers, asking them to come and help him with her funeral.

The messenger came first to “Wise Man.” When he heard the message, he exclaimed, “What can this man mean? The girl is not my wife. I certainly will not pay any money for her funeral.”

The messenger came next to the second man. His name was “Wit.” The latter at once said, “Oh dear, no! I shall not pay any money for her funeral [86]expenses. Her father did not even let me know she was ill.” So he refused to go.

“Thinker,” the third young man—when he received the message—at once got ready to start. “Certainly I must go and mourn for Morning Sunrise,” said he. “Had she lived, surely she would have been my wife.” So he took money with him and set out for her home.

When he reached it her father called out, “Morning Sunrise, Morning Sunrise. Come here. This is your true husband.”

That very day the betrothal took place, and soon after the wedding followed. “Thinker” and his beautiful wife lived very happily together.
